2. Reason for Revision

Reason	During the first three quarters of fiscal 2020, the pace of acquisition of new customers in the free Wi-Fi business has decreased with the impact of the spread of novel coronavirus infection, but the number of contracts acquired and the number of residential units under the new contracts in the residence Wi-Fi business are performing favorably and exceeding the estimation. Under such condition, both sales and profit of the consolidated results for fiscal 2020 are expected to exceed the forecast announced previously, and the forecast for full fiscal 2020 will be revised upwards. For the non-consolidated results, as the number of contracts is showing steady growth, forecast of results will be revised.
